

...a uniquely Canadian musical experience.

Call for Applications!
VICO Seeking New Board Members

The Vancouver Inter-Cultural Orchestra (VICO)

The mission of the VICO is to act as a forum for the creation of a new musical art form, one in which all of Canada's resident cultures can take part. Through composition, performance and educational outreach to both music professionals and the general public, the VICO serves as a voice for Canadian composers and musicians of diverse backgrounds, and fosters the creation of musical works that fuse and transcend cultural traditions.

Our regular-part-time staff includes an Artistic Director, a Composer-in-Residence, a Chief Administrator/Communications Manager, an Operations Coordinator, and a Financial Manager. We also retain the ongoing services of a variety of professionals for website management, graphic design, audio-visual recording and editing, and other essential tasks.

But enough about us – this is about you!

Opportunity to Join Our Board

Do you have?

- A knowledge of not-for-profit structures?
- A strong connection to the arts community?
- Experience in fundraising, event management and/or public relations?
- An interest in actively contributing to the overall direction of the VICO?

Then apply to join our Board of Directors! This is your chance to join our enthusiastic team of volunteer Board members, who come from all walks of life, and contribute your unique skills and experiences to the VICO.

We ask all interested applicants to please submit a cover letter and resume to info@vi-co.org. The cover letter should include a brief statement of why you would like to join the Board, skills and perspectives you can offer, and a brief summary of your current job and responsibilities.

Applications must be received by Monday April 2, 2018. Successful candidates will be invited to our AGM in April, and then for an informal interview with the board.

If you would like to know more, please do not hesitate to get in touch. We thank-you in advance for your interest, and we look forward to meeting you!